

City Administration Asks $2,791,240 Budget

Recommended Tax Tax Rate Set at $1.380

Palm Springs City Administration handed the City Council its preliminary 1959-60 budget last night — which calls for $2,791,240 to run the city government next year.

This is an increase over last year of $11,054, or only 0.4 per cent compared with last year's increase of 9.4 per cent.

BUT BECAUSE the city "during the past two years has been living beyond its means by spending large sums of previously accumulated reserve funds," the city will have to levy a net increase in the tax rate of 12.9 cents per $100 assessed valuation. It was pointed out, however, that this increase in the tax rate will not really show to the taxpayer until next year. The recommended tax rate has been set at $1.380, or 3.3 cents higher per $100 assessed valuation than last year, but the 15.5 cents sewer tax, added to the tax bill last year, has been dropped from this year's budget.

CITY MANAGER Dan Wagner said that the sewer tax does not have to be levied this year, but that it will have to be levied next year and will mean a 14-cent boost in taxes then.

Wagner pointed out in the budget message that for two years the city has been "living beyond its means" and said that there is only $35,000 in cash balances left in this year's budget. Last year the cash balance left was $93,500, and the previous year the cash balance was $185,000.

CURRENT STATE law provides that a property tax levy of more than $1 per $100 assessed valuation cannot be made against the taxpayer, and Wagner pointed out that this tax rate today in Palm Springs is 98.8 cents, only 1.2 cents under the legal maximum. The tax rate is brought up to $1.380 by bond issues adopted by the voters.

"With normal cash balances," said the city manager, "this situation will become more of a problem in succeeding years and the proposal to eliminate locally imposed budget restrictions should be submitted to the voters for their approval as provided for by state law."

IN BUILDING this year's operation budget for the city, Wagner said that he was forced to cut down departmental requests as far as he possibly could. He dropped a total of $102,000 from requests of department heads and decreased the capital outlay fund $343,354 less than last year's $559,740.

But other budgetary items went up: personal services, $994,768, up $32,822; materials, supplies and services, $448,696, up $71,449; other current charges (insurance, retirement, street and other bonds), $962,656, up $139,878; and debt services (interest and redemption payments for outstanding municipal bonds), $168,734, up $90,239.

FOR THE YEAR 1959-60 the assessed valuation of Palm Springs City has been estimated at $63,500,000, an increase of $4,232,630 over the last fiscal year. Wagner recommended to the council that should the assessed valuation be higher than that estimated, that "the new tax rate be retained."

Any surplus funds resulting from such a situation should be placed in a reserve for the financing of items previously deleted from the budget, or for unbudgeted expenses, or for rebudgeting as cash balances next year, Wagner said.

THE CITY COUNCIL will meet with department heads and the administration to work on the budget on Tuesday and Thursday of next week, and on Wednesday, June 24, an informal hearing will be held in the council chambers, at which time the public can be heard.

Copies of the budget will be available at the library for public study.

Miami Hit By Tornado; 100 Injured

Damage Might Exceed $4 Million;
More Predicted

MIAMI (UP) — A tornado whip lashed in from the Atlantic Ocean Wednesday night and carved a path of wreckage through heavily populated areas of Miami. One person was critically injured.

The Weather Bureau warned that east central Florida might be hit by other tornadoes during the morning. Unconfirmed reports said Jupiter Island, a millionaires' resort, was hit by a small tornado during the night.

AT LEAST 100 persons were injured by Wednesday night's twister which demolished several homes valued at up to $40,000 each. Most of the injuries were from flying glass. One man who was found bleeding on the street by a passing motorist was in critical condition.

It was the first instance in modern times where Miami, scene of many a devastating hurricane, had been struck by a tornado. But the first aid tactics developed for the hurricane season applied for the tornado victims.

JAMES SISSINE was returning to town from Miami Beach when he saw the tornado roaring across the causeway in front of him.

"We pulled off the road and watched," he said. "A Cadillac was turned upside down. Another car was smashed. We saw a two by four piece of wood driven in the ground like it was a toothpick."

More than 100 Miami homes were damaged or destroyed, 20 boats were sunk and at least 15 were flipped over.

A police spokesman said damage might run more than "three or four million dollars."

"IT WAS JUST AN IMPULSE," says handcuffed murder suspect Thomas Edward Dunn as he tells a coroner's jury why he administered a fatal beating to John Anthony Carnes, 51-year-old Palm Springs bill collector, at Carnes' apartment Sunday night. Police Sgt. Richard Harries stands guard over Dunn while Assistant Coroner James Bird looks on. The jury later ruled that Carnes met his death through blows administered by Dunn, and the suspect was subsequently ordered to face arraignment in Justice Court here today. (Desert Sun Photo).

Ethel Barrymore Succumbs Today At Age of 79

HOLLYWOOD (UP) — Veteran actress Ethel Barrymore, oft-acclaimed first lady of the American theater and matriarch of the Barrymore clan, died today of a heart ailment. She was 79.

Miss Barrymore, who outlived her more flamboyant brother, John, and equally famed brother, Lionel, succumbed quietly at her Beverly Hills home where she spent her final years away from the footlights she loved but close to occasional motion picture and television work that she detested but eventually tolerated.

She started acting at the age of 14 before the turn of the century, and for nearly 60 years achieved a string of successes that few actresses of any time could match. She became known to millions for her regal, imperious manner and throaty voice.

MURDER SUSPECT BLAMES 'IMPULSE' FOR HIS ACTION

Beaumont truck driver Thomas Edward Dunn, tagged by a county coroner's jury for the killing of a 51-year-old Palm Springs bill collector, faced his first court action on murder charges today.

Dunn, a 29-year-old ex-Marine, told an inquest jury yesterday that he slugged John Anthony Carnes in a sudden, angry impulse brought on by the older man's "superior attitude."

"HE TOLD ME stories about how he was a jet pilot and Navy commander in Korea," Dunn said. "He talked like he was my commanding officer, like I was inferior."

Carnes, a collection agency employee, met his death early Sunday evening through a series of blows to his face. His body was found on the bathroom floor of his apartment, 311 Chuckawalla Drive, Monday morning.

The coroner's jury ruled yesterday that Carnes died as the result of blows administered by Dunn. A few minutes later, Dunn appeared for arraignment before Justice Court Judge Eugene Theriault.

HIS ARRAIGNMENT was continued until late this morning to

Eamon de Valera Resigns Post

DUBLIN (UP) — Eamon de Valera resigned as Ireland's prime minister Wednesday night without waiting to find out today whether his countrymen had elected him president.

The 77-year-old de Valera will find out this evening whether the voters picked him or Gen. Sean McEoin, with whom he battled the English for Irish independence.

After the balloting closed Wednesday de Valera, who has dominated Irish politics for four decades, submitted his formal resignation as prime minister to outgoing president Sean T. O'Kelly.

give him time to secure a public defender. He was ordered held at city jail in lieu of $25,000 bail.

Dunn, questioned by assistant district attorney Roland Wilson, told the coroner's jury that he first slugged Carnes with a judo chop across the nose while the man was sleeping in his apartment.

He said he hit Carnes several times in the face when he sat up, shouting "why did you do it, why did you do it?" Dunn said he later knocked Carnes to the floor with a "roundhouse" blow after he threatened to call police.

"I was angry at the 'B.S.' he'd been telling me," Dunn reflected, "so I chopped him. It was just a sudden impulse."

Governor Again

Long Returns To Louisiana

NEW ORLEANS (UP) — Gov. Earl Long was back in Louisiana today after 18 stormy days in a Texas mental ward. State officials appeared ready to let him run the state from his hospital bed.

Long was settled in the fifth floor room at Ochsner Foundation Hospital overlooking a bridge his brother Huey built. He returned to Louisiana Wednesday night in an Air National Guard plane from John Sealy Hospital in Galveston.

LONG WAS WAN and halting when he stepped off the plane. All he said before an elevator whisked him and his entourage up to his hospital room was:

"I'm glad to be back."

He apparently has taken over again as governor.

La. Gov. Lethers Frasier, who was acting governor under the law while Long was out of the state, said Wednesday that as

Russia Puts Off Answer For 24 Hours

U. S. Plane Ready
To Leave If Talks
Are Broken Off

GENEVA (UP) — Secretary of State Christian Herter summoned his plane from the United States today in a subtle warning against new delaying tactics in the current Big Four talks by Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko.

Gromyko apparently was stalling until Premier Nikita Khrushchev can use new Berlin strategy after nearly two weeks of "little summit" talks with leaders of the Communist East German puppet regime.

FOR THE SECOND day running, Gromyko put off his answer to the West's three day old compromise plan for Berlin. He asked for and was granted another 24 hour delay in the Big Four secret meeting scheduled for today.

Herter was reported annoyed at the Soviet tactics. In a gesture backing up the West's warning that it will not talk here indefinitely without progress, he called his personal plane to Geneva and ordered it to stand by for a quick departure.

THE PILOT, MAJ. Orlo V. Harkness took off from Washington National Airport Wednesday night and landed here at 6 a.m. (p.d.t.). The plane was immediately re-serviced for use in case the talks are recessed.

American security men and steel-helmeted Swiss soldiers bearing carbines mounted guard over the big U. S. Air Force Constellation.

Western diplomats were braced for some new surprise from the unpredictable Khrushchev. They believed Gromyko himself was standing still until Khrushchev gives the word.

SOME FEARED A new takeover move on Berlin, perhaps an "agreement" handing over control of the outpost city to East German control.

Others thought the Kremlin merely was readying a Communist sugar-coating for some concession to the West at Geneva.

With the parley now being stalled again, Herter underscored that warning by putting his plane in full view at Geneva Airport.

Greatest Water Program In History Up to Voters

SACRAMENTO (UP) — California stands on the threshold of launching one of the greatest water construction programs in history.

Final approval by the Legislature Wednesday paved the way for a statewide election in 1960 to decide if the people want to embark on a program which at the very start will cost $1,750,000,000.

WHAT IS the program and why is it needed?

To start with, California has no water shortage. Fifty million acre-feet a year flows uselessly out to sea in the spring from Northern California streams.

The state today is using about 23 million acre-feet of water a year, 90 per cent of it for agriculture. But eventually the state will need more than 50 million acre-feet a year.

AND SOUTHERN California, which has only 10 per cent of the normal seasonal runoff, by the year 2020 will need almost four million acre-feet of water imported from Northern California.

The problem is to store the water now wasting out to sea, prevent floods, build dams, canals and aqueducts and get the water to the areas that need it.

This costs money, big money, perhaps 13 billion dollars by the time the statewide master plan is completed.

THE PROGRAM finally adopted by the Legislature after five years of bickering will put the state in the water business all the way from a little valley known as Frenchman's Flat in Plumas County down to Perris in Riverside County where one of the canals will end.

Carlin Disagrees

City Approves Course Changes

Councilwoman Mary Carlin, who has had a unique ability to say things to the press and at council meetings that would meet with the approval of local residents and taxpayers, last night suffered a major defeat in her vote against the proposed municipal golf course, and in some cases aroused the ire of local citizens.

In a sudden explosion of words and an accusation that "I don't have confidence in the special golf committee," Mrs. Carlin cast the only dissenting vote (5-1) against major changes in the lease-purchase agreement of the golf course from the Westview Development Corp.

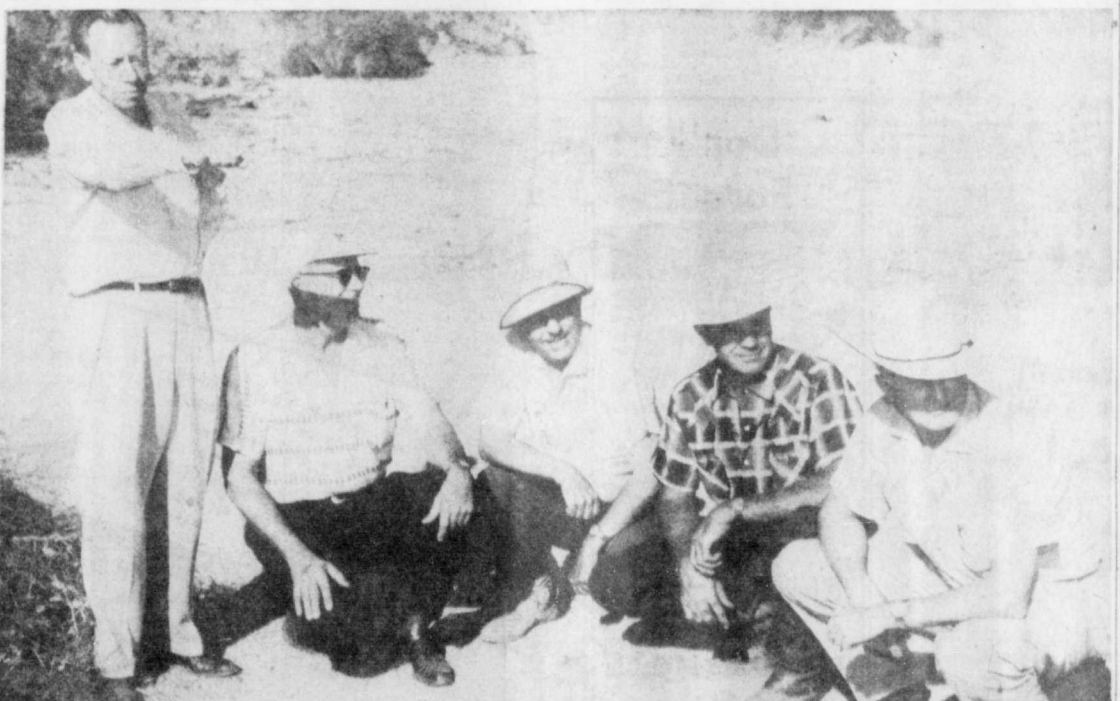

THE MAIN CHANGES in the lease between the city and Westview have to do with the transferring of the clubhouse site, parking lot, driving range and starting house from the back of the golf course to a site close to Highway 111.

BUT FOR THE transfer of the above mentioned sites, the council had to compromise on some of the other requirements that were previously levied against the Westview group.

Westview will now have an additional 30 days in which to prove title and turn it over to the city. The company has also been released from having to put in the driving range, water lines, drinking fountains, sheds over the pumping stations and installation of a second water pump, and the city will pave a 30-foot street, half of the necessary right-of-way.

FOLLOWING THE 5-1 passage of the resolution setting up the revised lease agreement, Councilman Ted McKinney moved a vote of confidence for the golf committee, comprised of M. O. Anderson, John Wood, Joel Stone, Russell Wade and George Beebe, Jr., and that too passed with a 5-1 vote.

Mrs. Carlin received a deep, heavy groan from the audience at last night's session when she said that she has heard many people all over town talking against the golf course. "It's really a confused mess," she said, "and I don't have any confidence in the committee."

NAVY TO KEEP CONTROL OF CORONA HOSPITAL-SAUND

Congressman D. S. Saund, in a telegram from Washington, D. C., today, said that the citizens communities surrounding Corona have won a "great moral victory" in their hope to hold onto the facilities of the Corona Naval Hospital.

Strong opposition to the disposal of the hospital facilities had been voiced by hundreds of residents from the lower Coachella Valley and Imperial Valley to Los Angeles County.

THE TELEGRAM, received by The Desert Sun, reports "that the magnificent facilities of the hospital should not be disposed of has been conceded by the Department of Defense."

"In a letter to the chairman of the House Armed Forces Committee, the Honorable Carl Vinson, the department has requested to withdraw its application for the disposal of Corona Naval Hospital," reports Saund.

"THE FACILITIES will remain under the jurisdiction of the Department of the Navy as they are now," the congressman added.

"I will pledge support of any use of the facilities that will serve the best interest of the public welfare, as may be desired and recommended by the people of the area."

Congressman Saund went on to explain that "so long as the facilities are there, there is hope for the reopening of the hospital and I shall diligently work for that objective."

Death of Mrs. William Lyons Reported Here

Word was received here yesterday of the death in Portland, Ore., of Mrs. William J. Lyons. She had been ill for about two weeks, following a stroke.

Patsy Sanders, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Sanders, and a student at Sacred Heart Academy in Plimbridge, arrived at her home Thursday for the summer. For the second year Patsy won top honors in typing and on Sept. 14 will start her senior year at the Academy.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ohrt who left Monday to spend the summer at Lake Tahoe, plan on returning to their Cathedral City home the early part of October.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Wennermark, owners of Universal Motors in Los Angeles, who returned last week from a business trip to New York via jet liner, spent the weekend at their desert home on "G" Street and had as their houseguests her sister-in-law and nephew, Mrs. Karl Kraus and Dieter of Pasadena.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Day left Saturday for their summer home in Idyllwild. Before returning in October they plan on visiting their daughter and family, the Donald Hammacks, and will meet their newest grandchild, three-month-old Stephanie for the first time.

After spending the winter with her mother, Mrs. Emma Hammill,

Mrs. Francine Melrose returned to her home in Martin, Mont.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Colglazier and Mr. and Mrs. Chuck Buresh were among the winners of tickets and transportation to the Dodgers and Braves game at the Los Angeles Coliseum on Tuesday night.

Last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Claude Cobb, pioneer residents of Cathedral City, left for a few weeks in Yellowstone National Park before going on to Seattle and a summer in the northwest.

Mr. and Mrs. Tony Janulis (Anthony's Refrigeration), their son, Tommy, and Tony's grandmother, Mrs. Anna Bernoske, spent the weekend at Las Vegas.

Tuesday night, Mrs. Eleanor Donahue was hostess for the Tallyettes final meeting of the season, at her home on "G" Street. Enjoying cards and refreshments were Ruby Hammer, Iris Down, Leona Smith and guests Amelia Irvine and Elsie Guenther, international representative for Beta Sigma Phi Sorority, who is visiting in the desert.

J. A. Shank of Morgan, Minn., enjoyed a few days visit at the Treasure Trail home of Mr. and Mrs. Levan Saeger.

Weekend houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Jorgensen (Jorgensen Realty) were his niece and family, Lt. and Mrs. Harvey Jeffers and children from Edwards Air Force Base. Here from Washington are his sister, Mrs. Lance Jacobson of Seattle, and their nephew, Dennis Palmer, of Ana-cortes, visiting for a few weeks.

The Berlin Command--4

WEST BERLIN — One fact is salient among all others to the eye-witness of the Berlin "situation." It is this—the Russians came here to stay in 1945, and we did not.

From this single fact spring a number of ramifications, most of them to our disadvantage. The Russians regarded their victory over Hitler as a vital phase in the Communist cause and in the Soviet conquest of Europe. We regarded our victory in the same war as the putting down of another international outlaw.

THE RUSSIANS, like ourselves in earlier days, are feeling a sense of "manifest destiny" to occupy and dominate the European continent, somewhat as we do the North American land mass. The USA, which has its own North-South axis and a sphere of influence asserted in the Monroe Doctrine and reasserted in the Guatemala incident only a few years back, cannot match Russia in an intense interest concerning Middle Europe.

Hence, Russia has a will-to-stay and we have a will-to-leave, offset only by the peculiarities of current history and by our current leadership. As history moves along, as the leadership shifts, we cannot expect that our determination to hold Berlin, adamant as it has been in the Truman-Eisenhower era, will remain unflagging. This does not infer that we shall desert the Germans to the mercies of Red imperialism. Rather, it means that the Germans or a West Europe Federation will eventually have to do the job.

ANYBODY WHO TURNS an honest eye at this proposition will see that we are here, in effect, to undo what we did in two wars. We are here to unmake the purpose of both those wars, which was to reduce Germany, first in 1917 and later in 1945, to a weakness that would prevent her from being the strongest unifying force in Europe. There are unanswerable arguments here for returning to our own continent as soon as possible, and that is what in the dim future, with Germany strong again, we shall do.

The Russian sense of conquest sticks out so big in East Berlin that nobody should miss it. I would defy even a nitwit to stand amid the melancholy splendors of the Soviet's Garden of Remembrance without realizing that no Soviet government could possibly retreat voluntarily from such a national shrine and frontier post.

THIS MAGNIFICENT setting of statuary and landscaping is the military cemetery of 7,000 Russian soldiers who lie in mass graves under the trees and the hillside. A tremendous figure of Mother Russia, as noble and heroic a statue as the world contains, dominates the park. The figure is that of a peasant woman, fully twice the size of life, her braided head bent in grief, her hands expressive of the world's tragedy in which all of us love and lose.

Closer to the graves' site are two face-to-face bronze statues of modern armed and uniformed Russian soldiers, one young and one whose face is lined with age and understanding of life. These figures are said to be the only known likenesses of Russian soldiers in kneeling postures, but there they are with bent knees and bowed heads above the burial ground of their fallen comrades.

FLANKING THE cemetery are bas-relief works of factory and battle scenes, in each case bearing an iron inscription from the speeches and works of Stalin. At the far end of the cemetery stands a memorial chapel with fresh flowers, crowned in its arched ceiling by a replica of the Soviet Order of Victory.

Let nobody in his senses imagine that the Russians built this colossal monument to their heroic dead, to their conquest of Berlin, to their political way of life, and that they ever did or ever will entertain the slightest idea of abandoning it in a foreign, non-Communist, enemy country—for such a country free Germany would be.

THE GARDEN OF Remembrance is certainly the most unmissable indication of the Soviet will-to-stay, but not the only one. Inside the British sector of West Berlin, guarded night and day by Russian soldiers, is another war memorial built by the Russians. The somewhat overstressed poverty and drabness of East Berlin, broken only by the showy boulevard called Stalinallee, is still another standing proof that the Russians are in this city in the role of conquerors and are not letting the East Berliners get any notions to the contrary.

Most of the facts of the case in Berlin are not to our liking, but that is no excuse for blinking at them. It would be much better for us if Khrushchev really did intend to bargain. It would make the allied foreign ministers look less like dunderheads if the Russian position were capable of giving a little, so as to accommodate our own concessions. It would make the proposed Summit meeting look less like a surrender-in-advance if there were any points that we could possibly win in Berlin.

But here is a position where we must stand firm, be uncompromising, be stubborn, not forever, but until Germany fully recovers from the beating which we made possible. —Holmes Alexander.

Contrast: The Dilemma of Two Berlins

BERLIN — The Allied checkpoint town of Helmsdorf disappears in the misty valley behind us. We're driving a fast Mercedes-Benz on the autobahn 110 miles to the peppermint-striped poles at Marienborn, the border-control point of Berlin.

Two East German Volkspolizei (people's police) check our papers and we drive under the raised gate back into the misty German wind.

SINCE WORLD WAR I we passed over the checkpoint many times and saw many Russians. Today only one bored Russian lieutenant sits lonely in his isolated booth.

The 110-mile stretch to Berlin is the loneliest road I ever saw outside of Siberia and the barren Sahara. No life whatever . . . anywhere to be seen.

WEST BERLIN is like a mirage at the end of the lifeless Communist waste of East Germany, just traveled. The houses and buildings, freshly painted, shine by day — and the modern animated electric signs wink an endless fountain of light and color by night.

It's a free city by any yardstick. The gay-Germans made it so, partly out of pride for their once great capital and partly out of defiance of Communism across the uneasy border of Potsdammerplatz. One can only imagine how it looks to the East Germans who brave it across now and then to breathe fresh air for a few precious hours.

ALTHOUGH THE luxurious new Hilton on the edge of the old Tiergarten is the latest addition to the miracle, we make our headquarters at our regular hotel over the years, the Am Zoo on the Kurfurstendamm, Berlin's Broadway.

Nowhere in the world can such a contrast be made between capitalism and communism, as between the success of West Berlin and the total failure of the East. Nowhere are two ideologies more competitively and comparatively put on display.

WE CROSS THE Brandenburg gate on foot to East Berlin. Before us stands once famous Unter Den Linden, where the lindens trees in the center are no more. How many times before the war we crossed the Linden from Friedrichstrasse to the old Automat on the corner, next to Christopher's leather shop, for sumptuous meal of weiner-schnitzel and apple strudel. It's all rubble today. The top-heavy Soviet embassy . . . House of Communist Free German Youth dominate the area.

THE ONCE BRILLIANT Berlin Academy of Music has been replaced by the "House of Soviet Friendship." The old imperial palace of the Kaisers . . . "The Schloss" . . . has been replaced by ugly, dreary commercial buildings. Only the old Berlin Rathaus . . . "city hall" . . . has been restored and houses the East Berlin city government. Herman Goering's luxurious Air Ministry is now occupied by the "German Democratic Republic" . . . and Joseph Goebbels' Propaganda Ministry is now the East German Communist Party headquarters and the office of communist boss Walter Ulbricht.

THE MOST STRIKING difference in East Berlin is the rubble and debris still piled up on some streets about fourteen years after the war. There are exceptions, like the old Landsberger Strasse (now Lenin Allee), where the debris has been cleared away and emptiness remains as far as the eye can see.

Most of East Berlin is debris or desert. Even in the heart of the city, where Hitler's impressive marble Reich chancellery once stood, there is nothing but barren waste.

WHERE HITLER and his mistress Eva Braun died, only a weather-colored chunk of limestone and bending weeds mark the spot of infamy and disaster. A hundred people passed us and not one as much as turned the face. Was it contempt or indifference? We could not say.

West Berlin has a population of over 2,500,000 to East Berlin's 900,000 . . . and the ratio is being increased as young men escape into West Berlin at the rate of 9,000 per month. Since the war, over 2,500,000 East Germans have fled to the West.

PRODUCTION FIGURES follow manpower statistics. East Berlin's total production last year was about $300 million . . . in West Berlin over $2½ billion. From courageous Berlin Mayor Willy Brandt, whom we saw this day, to the man-of-the-street in West Berlin, all believe a first step toward holding Berlin is for the West German government to return its headquarters from Bonn to Berlin, as a prestige and psychological factor.

Why, they say, should only the East German government have its headquarters in Berlin. We have not heard of any such suggestion anywhere in the Western plan and it seems to us to be one of the most important to the German people. —John Morley

Quotes from the News

JACKSONVILLE, Ill. — Ivan L. Corder, father of Navy aviator Donald Corder who was wounded Monday when a Navy patrol plane was attacked over the Sea of Japan by a Communist MIG jet fighter.

"It's a dirty dang shame to have to sit up there like sitting ducks and not be able to shoot back."

YOKOSUKA, Japan — Flier Corder, bemoaning the fact that the Reds shot up his uniform: "I didn't mind being shot up half as much as I did having my second class rating shot off my arm."

YOKOSUKA, Japan — Rear Adm. Frederic S. Withington, U. S. Naval commander in Japan, announcing that American air patrols would continue to fly as scheduled over the Sea of Japan despite the Communist attack on the Navy patrol plane.

"We are not willing to admit that the Sea of Japan is a Russian lake."

NEWARK, N. J. — Teamsters President James R. Hoffa, announcing his union would appeal a court decision denying a Teamsters move to side-step clean-up orders.

"While we may not like it, it is a decision of a U.S. court and deserves respect and dignity. It is only a matter of time before our lawyers draw up the papers and carry it on to another appeal."

NEW YORK — Army ballistic expert Werner von Braun, after declaring that only limited areas such as New York can be defended against possible attack by present-day ballistic missiles.

"But what's the use of defending the Rocky Mountains? The enemy isn't after the Rocky Mountains or the desert. And they don't have enough missiles to go after the whole country if they wanted."

Although I love
To go by train
It's the skyways
That give us fame.

Please hold your fire. I've read guys who get big money for writing verse who rhyme 'n' words and 'm' words and get away with it. So why can't I? Anyway, I'm going to.

HAVE OFTEN wondered why Holiday Magazine which confines its content to travel and resorts, doesn't give Palm Springs more of a play.

We're the Foremost Winter resort, aren't we, and the Winter Golf Capital of the World.

But at long last we're in it.

THE JULY ISSUE of Holiday which landed on my desk yesterday features an article on private plane travel.

The writer describes the great boom in private flying and pictures the more popular makes of smaller private planes.

The article is illustrated with a large colored aerial view of Desert Air Hotel where John Noyes holds forth a few miles southeast of Palm Springs.

THE ILLUSTRATION, only one of two outside of the black and white photos of the airplanes, shows the verdant turf runway at Desert Air Hotel, the parking space lined with private craft, the hotel and the pool.

The accompanying text gives the hotel quite a boost, describing how guests can taxi right up to their accommodations.

ONLY THING missing was that there was nothing about our Zaddie Bunker in the article devoted to private flying.

But I guess Zaddie has achieved plenty of publicity for Palm Springs all by herself what with her breaking the sound barrier.

Her picture and stories of her feat were in practically every large newspaper in the land a few weeks ago.

But, as I said in getting this piece on the road, the skyways are giving Palm Springs plenty of publicity — first Zaddie and now Desert Air Hotel.

It won't hurt us.

BY THE WAY, each month Holiday lists the temperatures to be anticipated during that month in many cities of the nation and some foreign cities.

Palm Springs hasn't made it yet (see above reference to it being a resort, isn't it?)

Perhaps it's just as well during July, August and September. But how about from October through May?

OUR CLIME will compare favorably with any of them—then. Note that neither Phoenix or Tucson are listed for July.

However, Barstow which I never thought of as much of a resort, is listed 100 as its highest July mark.

Las Vegas is also there, nonchalantly admitting a high of 104 and a low of 74.

Next fall we might get in there, perhaps, along with the Florida cities, eh, Jimmy and Cliff?

ACTION STARTS today in Sacramento on a campaign for tighter control of bill boards along the highways.

I wish it lots of luck.

STAN DELAPLANE'S Postcard

"Please forward short biography." That is the word from a publisher who will publish a short biography on a dust jacket. It is almost impossible for me to write a short biography. Because my biography has been growing with the years. However, we will try.

"His early years were spent in exotic foreign ports and on the seven seas."

THAT IS A GOOD line. It is like most of the material I read on the back of dust jackets. The fugitive from the exotic ports is shown in half profile. The picture is tilted and he is smoking a pipe.

This is a true biography. I will not make up a word of it. I spent early years in exotic foreign ports — between San Francisco and Panama.

MOST OF THE PORTS were so exotic, you could smell them 50 miles offshore. They did not smell like Chanel No. 5.

The exotic foreign ladies pushed off in dugout canoes when we came in sight. They called exotic invitations to us:

"Do laundry, Joe?"

"You buy souvenir, Joe?"

I shined brass and caught an exotic itch in Honduras.

However, this is a short biography. I do not have time to go beyond the simple statement:

"Exotic ports." That is a good line and I will keep it in.

LET ME SEE. "He was a war correspondent." That is Richard Harding Davis stuff. Trench coats. Foreign intrigue. The long, sleek, black limousine on a street in Cairo and the veiled Countess beckoning: "Come!"

You cannot hold up your head on a dust jacket unless you war corresponded.

I corresponded from a muddy town in the Philippines. We slept in the postoffice and traded with the natives for coconut beer.

The service was terrible and the cuisine was not Maxim's.

ONCE I SAT at a briefing where the officer said: "The enemy casualties number 7001."

All the correspondents cried: "You CAN'T make it a round figure plus one. Nobody would believe it. It makes us look foolish."

So they agreed to make it 7014 — or some such other foolish number.

Instead of being cool, colorful characters, they were just like any police reporters I knew in the States. Fixing up the facts.

Shortly thereafter I met a man who ran a small ship that carried nothing but beer. I transferred to this ship. It was the most successful correspondence I ever did. I never understood the war, anyway.

A DUST-JACKET MAN is in tune with Nature. That is absolutely a must on a jacket. "He now spends his time writing and cultivating his garden."

Sounds like you are falling apart. But that is the way biographies go.

All the exotic things have happened. Now you just sit around thinking about it. While the medicines prop you up with pills.

MY HOBBY is gardening. The way to indulge this hobby is to hire a gardener. His hobby is clobbering you $35 a week to do the hobby work.

He gardens. I polish epigrams to put on dust jackets to put around a book to bring in $35 to give the gardener to do my hobby work. It is complicated.

THAT IS A SHORT biography. It will look good on a dust jacket. With the tilted picture and the pipe. (I do not care for pipes. But you must have one on the jacket.)

It is a good biography and mainly true. It will make the book pretty. After a couple of months, the jacket gets torn at the edges. Then you throw it away. A pity, with such colorful material.

QUOTES

WASHINGTON — President Eisenhower, when asked at his news conference if the chances of a summit meeting had grown dimmer because of the five-week stalemate at Geneva:

"Well, certainly they have grown no brighter."

GRIN AND BEAR IT By LICHTY

"It's a protest from the Agriculture department, chief. . . . They say they got enough trouble with surplus crops without any more beneficial rains!"

EARL WILSON:

Judy Planning a Surprise

NEW YORK — Judy Garland's new brain trust wants her to issue a stirring surprise statement asserting that famous personalities have no rights of privacy and should have no recourse against columnist's so-called "invasion." This would be a new bill of rights for press treatment of celebrities. Judy's legal advisers are urging her also to withdraw her libel suit against CBS . . . meaning that columnist Marie Torre would not have to worry about being returned to jail. They consider that the "Garland Law" could become a legal milestone.

I asked John Ringling North what he was going to do with the $11,500,000 he got for his Florida real estate. He replied, "I'm going to be very, very careful with it." . . . Though N.Y. had a temperature of 91.3, Marilyn Monroe had a higher one — 101 — and was in bed with it. . . . Leaving for Europe recently, Johnny Meyer claimed he was taking along a sleeping bag. He explained: "I'm visiting John Pochina in Monte Carlo." His wife Joan who recently made a Page 1 settlement with him "just had a truck go up to their villa and move out everything including the beds."

Zsa Zsa Gabor's new boy, Frank Kiplinger, the TV director-producer. They were at the Roundtable where, a couple of nights ago, the high-livin' Woolie Donahue, who recently injured his hand, used his cane to lead the band leaders, who naturally appreciated it. . . . Jack Carter wants to get married, but his wife Joan won't let him. (There's a hitch in their unhitching.)

Boom Note: Gene Cavallaro says the Colony's May business was the best month the restaurant had since it opened in 1919. . . . Having dinner at Chez Vito, we heard the violin offering the delightful "Coro Prima" and translated it into "Perry's first in the Trendex." However, they told us it's "Come Prima" and means "As Before." Come incidentally is now cover boy on the English magazines due to his TV success there.

MIKE CONNOLLY:

Leaping With Elation

HOLLYWOOD — Canada Dry labels are lined up all over the bar in the office party scene for "The Best of Everything" at Fox. Pepsi-Cola queen Joan Crawford, one of the stars in the picture, put in a pitch for Pepsi. "Nothin' doin'" — but Joan did arrange to have a Pepsi vending machine set up alongside the water cooler on the set.

Josh Logan is leaping with elation over his ever-lovin' international lineup for "Fanny" — Fredric March (USA), Audrey Hepburn (Belgium), Maurice Chevalier (France), Horst Buchholz (Germany). Logan will launch the movie come next tourist time on the French Riviera, on May 3, 1960, which makes it all the more international because that's Polish Independence Day. Maestro, please, a little Chopin music — like "Ta-Ra-Ra-Boom, Gotta Get a Hotel Room!"

THE THEATRE Guild hitched up the starring broomstick for Hermione Gingold in Mel Dinelli's witchcraft caper, "Abracadabra." It opens pre-Broadway July 1 in Westport, Conn.

Dr. Jessie Marmorston, the distinguished heart specialist whose photo appears in that national magazine, is the wife of Metro producer Larry ("The Tender Trap") Weingarten.

Another national mag signed screenwriter Guy Trosper, who wrote Marion Brandos' "One-Eyed Jacks," to tell ALL about why it took 133 days to shoot it. But how can he do that in ONE issue?

SPEAKING OF Brando, he no sooner started shooting Tennessee Williams' "The Fugitive Kind" (formerly "Orpheus Descending") than he and his temperamental co-star, Anna Magnani, were at each others' throats over who should get the most closeups!

Similar situation on Metro's "Never So Few" soundtrack in which Gina Lollobrigida has been tossing temperamental tizzies over Kipp Hamilton's added scenes with Frank Sinatra. Granted that this is Gina's first time up in Hollywood, it seems she'd have learned better manners during her years of starring in Italy — and isn't there an Italian edition of "How to Win Friends and Influence People" ???

BE THAT AS IT may, I've got to admit that Metro hasn't shot anything like Lollo's love scenes with Sinatra since the days of Greta Garbo and John Gilbert. Matter of fact, they make Garbo and Gilbert look like Jane Withers and Bobby Breen!

"Visit to a Small Planet" is right — first Jerry Lewis son out of the picture with an out-of-this-world case of nervous fit-

Erin O'Brien figures a sensible girl's one who has sense enough not to look sensible.

Debbie Reynolds' mother phoned Jolie Gabor's shop when Debbie was in N.Y. recently and asked for Jolie. "Zees eez Jolie, dolling," a voice said — and carried on a long conversation in Hungarian accents. Finally "Jolie" switched to Los Angeles English, and said, "Mother! Didn't you recognize my voice? This is Debbie."

Bess Meyer soon'll helicopter from N.Y. to the new Atlantic City La Concha Hotel roof and step out wearing a l-bling suit (like the "Miss America" she was) and a mink coat (like the "Big Payoff" hostess she is) on June 26. It's the part of the roody-doo for the hotel opening. . . . Sports writers complain that when ever they look for Ingemar Johansson at the Grossinger training camp, he's in N.Y. doing a TV show. . . . Add Silly Similes: "She is about as popular as poached eggs in an Italian Hero sandwich shop" — Irwin Hyman, the Bronx.

The forecasters sure confuse me. Kiplinger predicts a boom for next decade, calls it "The Soaring Sixties," whereas Cornelius Vanderbilt tells of a rumor that in event of a nuclear attack, Florida and southern California would be wiped off the map and Nevada, behind the High Sierra mountains, and its fortress of slot machines, would be the strategically safe place to be. He says many wealthy folks are already establishing their hideouts there "neath the silver dollar-shaped Nevada moon."

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH . . . A showgirl says she's starting to distrust her boy friend. He bought her a mink coat — but insured it in his wife's name.

Some wealthy Oklahoma Indians are producing western films. They're like any other westerns — except that the U.S. cavalry arrives too late. That's all, brother.

(Distributed 1959, The Hall Syndicate, Inc.)

CHANNEL CHATTER — Ronnie Burns quit telling ripples in the brook all about starlet Joanne Grant because she's consoling Jim Arness over the bustup of his marriage. . . . Why the delay in signing the Arness property settlement? His chums claim he's broke. But then, as Joan Crawford claims, isn't every salaried star these days?

Nicky Persoff planned out to New York after his not-so-hot portrayal of Mussolini on Playhouse 90 to audition for the role of the late Mayor LaGuardia in George Abbott's new play, "The Little Flower."

BOB MONTGOMERY speaking: "I don't know about going back into TV after I finish shooting 'The Gallant Hours,' not with all those Westerns they're grinding! What would I follow a Western with — an HONEST show show?"

Hugh (Wyatt Earp) O'Brien on the phone from Chicago: "Whaddya mean, what was I doing with Dr. Albert Schweitzer in Africa? I was building a shower bath for his native helpers, that's what!"

Gene (Bat Masterson) Barry started a sitdown strike and didn't show up for work, just as Clint (Cheyenne) Walker before him. Like Walker, he wants a raise. And so the other actors in the Bat shows are just a-settin' around a-twiddlin' their thumbs — and getting paid for it, per their contracts!

SPORTSCAR ENTHUSIAST Julie Payne, the lovely daughter of Anne Shirley and John Payne, has been set to act as technical advisor on Joe Schenck's new series, The Racer, starring David Janssen, ex-Richard Diamond. . . . Janssen, incidentally, will swing around the strawhat theatre circuit this summer as the star of "Mister Roberts," with movie vet Frank McHugh as his sidekick, "Doc."

Steve (Wanted — Dead Or Alive) McQueen's wife brought their new baby home from the hospital to find a welcome-home bouquet with a card signed "Love from Dick, David and Charles." Nelle couldn't for the life of her figure who they were. Finally she phoned the Tolet to find out they're her feller's Four Star steersmen — Powell, Niven and Beyer!

Potshot in a Television City dressing room: "The seams in your stockings are okay, sweetie — it's your legs that are all busted!"

Appraisers Seminar Held Here

Dinner at the Chi Chi Starlite Room on Friday night and Saturday night dinner at Don the Beachcombers were social highlights of the weekend seminar which brought 65 Southern California Inheritance Tax Appraisers and some of their wives to Palm Springs for the weekend. The group took over Desert Skies.

Special guests were State Controller Alan Cranston, who was here with his wife and two sons, and Deputy Controller Irwin Nebron and his wife. The seminar, which started Friday at 2 p. m. and concluded Sunday at 4 p. m., heard several outstanding speakers including Laurence Sando and Myron Siedorf.

Also in attendance were Atty. and Mrs. Prentiss Moore of Los Angeles, and William V. O'Connor, former chief deputy of Governor Brown when he was Attorney General.

Judge and Mrs. Hilton McCabe were honored guests at the Beachcomber dinner.

Stanley Spiegelman was chairman of arrangements, aided by Mrs. Virginia Strahan of Banning, and manager Si Slocum of Desert Skies.

The seminar group were so pleased with arrangements that Spiegelman has been named on the committee for next fall's state convention.

Board Members At Conference

Three newly installed members of the executive board of Desert Hot Springs Toastmistress Club attended the regional conference held at the Miramar Hotel in Santa Barbara, June 5, 6 and 7. They were Mrs. Don Hulbert, president; Mrs. Judge King, vice president; and Mrs. John Hemmingsway, program chairman. They proudly report that the club's year book (compiled by Mrs. Don Hulbert, which won first place at Council in May), went on to tie for second place in Santa Barbara.

Plan Vacation

Great Falls, Montana, Glacier and Yellowstone National Parks are included in the summer vacation plans of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Gordon, of Stevens Road.

Wiesner-Gilner Nuptials at Temple Isaiah on Sunday

At Temple Isaiah Helaine Louise Gilner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Gilner of 457 North Palm Canyon Drive, and Joe Wiesner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Wiesner, were married Sunday, with Cantor Irwin Halpern and Rabbi Joseph Hurwitz officiating. Two hundred and sixty one guests attended the wedding.

The bride wore a princess style gown of white silk and lace and a veil encrusted with tiny pearls. She carried white orchids and a stehanhof.

Her sister Mrs. Murray November of Los Angeles was matron of honor. Bridal attendants Mrs. Lauren Acker, Miss Martha Gordon and Miss Marilyn Leinon wore pale green gowns and carried bouquets of green and yellow. The flower girl little Miss Karen Rosenbaum wore pink and carried a pink basket of flowers. Best man was Martin Barmatz, and ushers were Sheldon Cantor, Murray November and Jack Snyder.

Indian Wells Is Popular Dining Spot

Indian Wells Country Club was the scene of much activity over the weekend. Among Saturday night dinner groups was a party of eight which included the Harold Wests, Duane Stachlers, Earl Houghs and Joe Hendersons.

In another party were Mr. and Mrs. Don Cameron who entertained a few at cocktails in their beautiful home on the fairways at Indian Wells Golf Course, prior to dinner. This included the Bud Garfields (he is the new manager of Rancho Mirage Properties replacing Elliott Caplow who was transferred to Washington), the Marvin Garfields from Whittier who are potential home owners in Rancho Mirage; Hank Gogerty, and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Richardson.

Also dining at the club were Mariann and Mike Ferrall; the Francis Pruitts, who were with Harriet and Walter Loupe; the Tony Montys, Gloria and John Newell (he is president of Salton Sea Realty Company), and others.

Mills College Alumnus Goes North for Homecoming Weekend

Graduation and class reunions held recently at Mills College in Oakland attracted many Southern Californians. Among those participating in the luncheons, receptions and dinners which marked this annual event was Mrs. Dwight Twist of Palm Springs.

Hundreds of Mills alumnae from all parts of the country met on the Oakland campus for homecoming festivities of commencement weekend, June 4 through 7, and to meet Dr. C. Easton Rothwell, president-elect of the college. The busy schedule of reunion events included an outstanding address to alumnae and their friends by Dr. Georgiana Melvin, retiring professor of philosophy, on "Recent Soviet Interpretations of International Relations." The traditional college picnic, president's reception, alumnae-family dinner and class dinners were other highlights for returning alumnae. At the 80th annual meeting of the Alumnae Association on June 6, Mrs. J. Benton Bostick, Jr., of Tiburon, California was elected national president, to succeed Mrs. J. Blaker Herod of Walnut Creek, California.

Dr. Cora DuBois, professor of anthropology at Harvard and Radcliffe, spoke at Degree Day ceremonies in the Outdoor Theatre on Sunday afternoon, on "The Quality of Adventure." Visiting graduates had earlier donned black robes and Oxford caps to march in academic procession to the formal ceremonies, where Acting President of the college, Dr. Mary Woods Bennett conferred an honorary Doctor of Laws degree upon Dr. DuBois. Senior class valedictorian was Beth Olson of Washington, and diplomatas were awarded to 135 students.

Four Villagers Among Graduates At Stanford

Four students from the Palm Springs area were among the graduates at the 68th annual Stanford Commencement in Frost Amphitheatre Sunday. President Wallace Sterling conferred degrees on 1304 seniors and 1291 graduate students, among them Conrad Beth Banner, LL.B.; Henry Carl Baumgartner, M.B.A.; John Charles McDonald, M.S., E.E.; Prescott Stevens Nichols, A.M., Eng.

More than 2000 persons attended. John W. Gardner, president of the Carnegie Corporation of New York was awarded an honorary Stanford fellowship and delivered a brief address. President Sterling delivered the traditional farewell to the class.

BIRTHS

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Spinney of 68-910 Buena Vista Drive, Desert Hot Springs, are the parents of an eight pound, seven ounce son, born June 10 at Desert Hospital at 7:10 a.m.
June 15 at 9:13 a.m., an eight pound, six and one half ounce boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Mark Sirott of 34-060 Corregidor Drive.

Cuban Boxers
Now Eat Better,
Turn SluggersBy OSCAR FIALEY
United Press International

NEW YORK (UPI)—The 15-pound turkey and the cold cuts loaded on the plates disappeared as if an Army of African driver ants had passed through the room.

"Hey, for Christmas sakes, get those guys away from those groceries," the matchmaker yelled. "They'll never make the weight or else we'll have to put 'em in as heavyweights."

THE THREE FIGHTERS, two Cubans and a Venezuelan, backed reluctantly away from the table, munching contentedly and reaching for another soft drink. "Get away from that stuff," the matchmaker growled. "Ya get hit in the belly Friday night and y'll wish ya hadn't drank it." The trio glared and backed off. After all, this was free food for the weekly "luncheon"—complete with salami, corned beef, Swiss cheese, boiled ham, pickles and potato salad—at which the main eventers at Friday night's television boxing show usually stop to chat with the sportswriters.

FLORENTINO FERNANDEZ and Douglas Vaillant, both out of Cuba, and Carlos Hernandez, the Venezuelan lightweight, couldn't speak English. But they kept their jaws working anyhow.

"That's the difference between Cuban and South American fighters today than those of the past," explained Barney Barker, a one-time bombardier who manages Vaillant, a principal in one of the three top 10's at Madison Square Garden on Friday night. "They eat better."

"IT'S A MATTER of style and also of diet," Barker continued. "When I took Vaillant out of the amateurs two years ago he weighed 116 pounds, his teeth were bad and he had five different kinds of parasites. I been feeding him all kinds of vitamins, milk and good food. Now he's 135 and can hit like a mile."

Vaillant can indeed if you figure that as a pro he has won 16, plus

Biltmore Hotel toppled from first place in the Desert Softball League last night as a pair of sixth-inning errors yielded up a tie-breaking run for a hard-hitting Mexican Colony squad.

Biltmore strongman Neal Green hurled his standard strike-out ball — fanning 11 Colony batters — but the Colonists managed to walk off with the ball game, with a 5-4 score.

IN LAST NIGHT'S Polo Grounds nitecap, the Desert Sun-Chi Chi won its first game of the season, climbing out of the cellar with a 17-16 edge over the Telephone Co.

Biltmore opened the game with three runs on a trio of singles and an error in the bottom half of the first.

Green struck out the first six Colony batters, but the Colonists evened up the score with three tallies on a pair of singles and a double in the third. A base on balls and an error in the fourth frame gave the Colony its fourth run.

THE FORMER league champions balanced the scale with a round-tripper by Charlie Brown in the bottom of the fifth, but the game ended for Biltmore when Don Mendoza came home on a pair of Biltmore errors in the top of the sixth.

The win dropped Biltmore to second place with a total of three wins and one loss for the season.

Mexican Colony Pitcher Frank Prieto yielded five hits to Biltmore batters while Green gave up six.

THE NITECAP slugfest between the league cellar mates saw six runs in the first frame for the Telephoneists and seven for Desert Sun-Chi Chi.

Telephone sluggers came back with seven more runs in the fifth stanza but the Sun-Chi squad retaliated with a half-dozen more.

Giants Call Up
Eddie Fisher

SAN FRANCISCO — (UPI) — The San Francisco Giants have called up the Pacific Coast League's winningest pitcher, Eddie Fisher of Phoenix.

Fisher, 22, has won 10 games and lost four this year for the Arizona farm team. He convinced the parent club he was worthy of a closer look when he tossed a one-hitter Tuesday night in beating Portland, 6-0.

Adult Baseball
Set Saturday
At Polo Grounds

Adult baseball comes to the Polo Grounds diamond Saturday night when the Coachella Valley Savings and Loan Association team faces the Coachella Valley All-Stars.

Game time is 7:30 p.m.

The powerful All-Star team features a lineup of players culled from Los Angeles, Coachella Valley and various Southland junior college and college teams.

Saturday night's game is a early prelude to the annual clash between CVSLA and the Los Angeles Dodger Rookie squad, scheduled for August, according to City Recreation Director Howard Haddock.

Managed by John Markinko, the CVSLA team has played 15 exhibition games this year with outstanding teams from the Los Angeles area.

After Saturday's game, the local squad plans a five-week "vacation" before returning to the diamond to wind up the year's games, Haddock said.

Williams, Rush
Named Tonight

LOS ANGELES — (UPI) — The Los Angeles Dodgers, who for the last two years have played their best against the league champions, tonight will try to make it three straight over the Milwaukee Braves, with Stan Williams as pitcher.

Williams will be trying to duplicate the feats of Sandy Koufax and Danny McDevitt, who Wednesday night took both ends of a doubleheader with the Braves, 10-2 and 4-0. Opposing Williams, 3-1, will be the veteran Bob Rush, with a 4-3 record this season.

Giants Move
To Half Game
Of Braves

Antonelli Wins
No. 10, Spahn
Loses No. 8

By FRED DOWN

UNITED PRESS INTERNATIONAL

The crux of the National League pennant race may be that Johnny Antonelli is enjoying his best season in five years while Warren Spahn is having his worst in seven.

Antonelli, San Francisco's star lefty, is now 10-3 and enroute to his finest year since he had a 21-7 record for the world champion Giants in 1954; Spahn, who averaged 21 victories a season for the last six years, stands 8-8 and is headed for his worst record since he was 14-19 for the Braves in 1952.

ALL OF WHICH helps to explain why the Braves have been unable to shake off the pursuing Giants — not to mention the Pittsburgh Pirates, Los Angeles Dodgers and Chicago Cubs as well.

The Giants made hay out of the situation again Wednesday when they advanced to within a half-game of first place by beating the Cincinnati Reds, 7-5, while the Dodgers clipped the Braves, 10-2 and 4-0, in a two-night doubleheader.

ANTONELLI went seven innings for his 10th victory for San Francisco but the Dodgers rocked Spahn for five runs in 1-3 of an inning to set up their rout in the opener at Los Angeles.

The Chicago Cubs beat the Pirates, 5-2, and the St. Louis Cardinals whipped the Philadelphia Phillies, 10-4, in other NL games.

In the American League, the New York Yankees defeated the Chicago White Sox, 7-3, the Baltimore Orioles edged out the Detroit Tigers, 4-0, and the Washington Senators beat the Kansas City Athletics, 7-2.

Packers Sign Pair

GREEN BAY, Wis. — (UPI) — Quarterback Vito (Babe) Parilli and end Steve Mellinger, both former University of Kentucky football stars, have signed 1959 contracts with the Green Bay Packers.

Giants Sign Barry

NEW YORK (UPI) — Al Barry, offensive guard for the New York Giants' eastern division champions last season, signed yesterday for his fourth National Football League campaign.

Groza Signs Again

CLEVELAND — (UPI) — Place-kicking specialist Lou Groza, the only remaining charter member of the Cleveland Browns, has signed to play his 14th season of professional football.

Boxing Future
Bright Today
For Rodriguez

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (UPI) — A virtually unlimited boxing future beckoned today to unbeaten Cuban welterweight Luis Manuel Rodriguez, but what's to become of his latest victim, former champion Virgil (Honey Bear) Akers?

Rodriguez, a 2-1 favorite in a late switch of odds, gave Akers a solid drubbing to gain the unanimous decision in their nationally televised 10-round bout Wednesday night the fourth loss in the last five bouts for Akers.

ALTHOUGH RODRIGUEZ hinted broadly that Akers has "lost his punch," the former champ insisted today that he's not considering retiring.

"I'll fight some more and knock off a few more," Akers declared. "I'll be back up again."

BUT THE LOPSIDED nature of Rodriguez triumph, 21st for the 22-year-old Cuban who was making his U.S. debut, left the future very murky for the 32-year-old Akers of St. Louis, Mo., whose career has been sliding downhill since he lost the crown last year to Don Jordan.

Hartack Wins Three

STANTON, Del. (UPI) — Jockey Willie Hartack had three winners at Delaware Park Wednesday. Hartack's big victory was aboard Vital Force in the $10,000 added Cristiana Stakes. His other wins were on Coyland and Chance Gauge.

Colt Leaguers
Still Undefeated

Palm Springs Colt leaguers will be gunning for their third straight win tonight when they face the Indio Rancheros at Indio's Padres' Field.

The Palm Springs Boys Club-Elks Lodge team clobbered the Oasis Wildcats 15-1 in their second outing of the season at Indio Tuesday night.

Owner of Tomy

Lee Decides

To Quit Racing

INGLEWOOD, Calif. (UPI)—The future of Kentucky Derby winner Tomy Lee was in doubt today because of the decision of owner Fred Turner Jr. to leave thoroughbred racing.

Turner, a wealthy Texas oilman, said he was taking Tomy Lee out of training and indicated he may sell him for syndication as a stallion.

Threat to withdraw from his turf sport as an owner, apparently because of a dispute which centered on the failure of jockey Bill Shoemaker to ride Tomy Lee in the Cinema Handicap at Hollywood Park.

The turf patron said 14 other horses he owns would be put up for auction.

College Teams

Meet for Title

OMAHA, Neb. (UPI) — Arizona's Wildcats and Oklahoma State's Cowboys decide the national collegiate baseball championship tonight.

Both teams have qualified for the NCAA college world series four times before. Neither has been able to win the crown.

PITCHER CARLOS Reyes' dazzling sidearm fastball held the Wildcats to one scant hit while Palm Springs batsmen belted the opposition for nine hits in the four-inning game.

The Village baseballers scored five runs in the first inning on a pair of doubles by Gus Walton and Dagoberto Duran after the Wildcats walked three batters.

THE WILDCATS scored their solitary, unearned run on a walk and Palm Springs error in the first.

Reyes struck out the side in the second and as Village sluggers garnered three more runs. They added five more in the third and two in the fourth.

Batteries: Reyes and J. C. Walton for Palm Springs; Rivas and Shrock for Oasis.

Boat Owners Given Advice On Traveling

Do you own a boat? And during the summer months do you tow it behind your car from home to lake and back again?

Then you may have a turn signal problem on your hands, says Capt. L. W. Watson, commander of the Indio CHP Area.

"CALIFORNIA LAW requires trailers carrying loads that extend 24 inches or more to the left of the center of the steering wheel of the towing vehicle to be equipped with either signal lamps or an approved mechanical signal device," Capt. Watson said.

"Other equipment required on trailers includes one red tail lamp, a license plate lamp, one red reflector, and a stop lamp. In addition, the towing vehicle must be equipped with a mirror reflecting a view of the highway 200 feet to the rear."

CAPT. WATSON emphasized that trailer hitches must be properly and securely mounted, with a legal safety chain to control the trailer if the hitch should fail. "Finally, I want to remind every trailer owner that the maximum legal speed while towing a trailer of any kind is 45 miles an hour," Capt. Watson declared.

RIVERSIDE COUNTY SUPERVISOR George Berkey helps his wife, Caroline, to a heaping dish of buffet delicacies at Bermuda Dunes Country Club. Occasion was the weekly Twilight Golf Matches for Bermuda Dunes members and their guests. Held each Friday at 5 p.m., the event has been a spectacular success since its recent inauguration. The after-golf buffet prepared by Chef David Watt in Bermuda Dunes' unique "Top o' the Dune" clubhouse has been a powerful Twilight Golf magnet. (Gayle Studio Photo).

To Investigate Matter

Steele Unhappy With CV Committee Action

The Board of Supervisors was advised this week by Airports Director Joe Marriott that previous to receipt by the airport commission of a request from the Board of Supervisors that they arrange a meeting with Walter R. Wright, Sr. and other members of the Coachella Valley Economic Development Committee to discuss conditions at Thermal Airport, action had already been taken on a copy of Wright's letter to the board.

Wright's letter charged that lack of maintenance has resulted in a dangerous condition at the hangar and that other buildings and facilities at the airport need attention.

"JAMES SIMPSON (Hemel mayor), president of the airport commission, received a copy of the letter and immediately contacted Commissioner Dudley Steele of Palm Desert requesting that he investigate the situation for the commission," reported Marriott. "This action was initiated prior to the June 1 referral of your letter and we trust it will be acceptable to await the report of Mr. Steele's investigation before setting a date for a group meeting."

"THE ACTION IS not particularly pertinent to the question raised," commented Supervisor George Berkey, and at his suggestion the matter was referred to the administrative officer.

Attached to the commission's June 4 request for delay pending Steele's investigation report was a copy of a letter written June 6 by an irate Steele to Wright. Wrote Steele, who in addition to being a member of the airport commission is also a member of the advisory board of the C. V. Economic Development Committee:

"RECENTLY YOUR board held a meeting and presumably discussed the Thermal Airport. As a result of that meeting you addressed a letter to the Board of Supervisors criticizing certain aspects of the airport.

"Despite the fact that I am a member of your advisory board and available, you did not see fit to call upon me to attend the meeting in question. Nor did you as far as I know, call upon any member of the airport commission or its director, to attend and advise you.

"IT IS QUITE obvious from the contents of your letter that your committee is woefully lacking in full understanding of the airport problems of Riverside County. Had any of those vitally interested in airport matters been invited to attend, you, I am sure, would not have found it necessary to subject the airport commission to such unwarranted criticism.

"If this member of your advisory panel is merely there for window dressing and his advice is not sought on such matters as he is familiar with, then why not remove him and replace him with someone in whom you have more confidence? After what has happened it is my belief that you are fully able to solve your airport problems without the aid of people who have been in aviation for more than three decades."

Saund Visits Super-Carrier USS Saratoga

Congressman D. S. Saund returned to Washington this week after a cruise aboard the "super-carrier" USS Saratoga.

Saund and 14 other Congressmen were guests of the Navy for a day and night aboard the Forrestal class aircraft carrier.

The Congressional representative from the 21st California District said he landed on the carrier aboard a fleet aircraft and witnessed landings and maneuvers of jet carrier planes.

The Congressmen also saw aerial firing demonstrations of dead-ly guided missiles fired at airborne targets by carrier craft.

Congressman Saund said he met one Imperial Valley resident, Cmdr. Lewis Chick, before he went ashore.

Action Delayed On Andrea Acres

The appeal by Bess Matloff to the Board of Supervisors of the planning commission's rejection of the tentative map for Andrea Acres in the Bermuda Dunes area west of Indio was continued until Monday when it became known that the subdivision map is being redesigned and was not yet ready for presentation.

The traditional bridal flower is the myrtle, which was sacred to Venus, goddess of love.

SIMMS BUICK - PONTIAC

383 NORTH INDIAN

Dear Abby...

DEAR ABBY: On October 10, 1958 I sent a wedding gift to the daughter of a friend. I know this girl got the gift because her mother said she did. But as yet I haven't received a thank-you note from the girl.

Her mother said a bride has a year in which to acknowledge her wedding gifts. Is that a fact? This girl had plenty of time before the wedding to sit down and send out over 300 wedding invitations to people all over the country (she didn't know half of them) but she can't find time to thank them for the gifts. What is my next move?

MRS. L. DEAR MRS. L.: The next move is hers, not yours. The well-bred bride acknowledges her wedding gifts within thirty days after she returns from her honeymoon trip.

DEAR ABBY: I wanted to send for your pamphlet on "HOW TO GET BOYS TO NOTICE ME" but my father says too many boys notice me as it is. I am ten years old but sometimes I pass for twelve. Dear Abby, can you help me with my problem? I would like to have boys notice me.

NOT NOTICED DEAR NOT: Girls your age have a lot of time in which to be noticed. Be your sweet 10-year-old self and let Nature take its course.

DEAR ABBY: If those immature parents who squabble over who should meet their son when he comes back from overseas had a real worry, they wouldn't have time to think about such a trivial thing. The important thing is that the boy is coming home. I met my sons at the train — two of them. But they were in boxes, draped in flags.

Sincerely yours,
HATTIE HAMILTON

DEAR ABBY: My husband and I have lived in this apartment for seven years and we have watched a little golden-haired girl grow up. She is now 18 but is childish in many ways although she is as developed physically as I am.

I work odd hours at the hospital around the corner. Many times I will come home and find this neighbor girl sleeping on our day-bed. She says she is afraid to sleep alone.

My husband is young, good-looking and only human. While I trust him and realize this girl is sweet but simple-minded, how long should I put up with this? I tell my husband it doesn't look right but he kids me out of it. Please

Avenue Becomes Country Club

With no one present this week to speak either for or against the proposal to change the name of 40th Avenue to Country Club Drive in the Coachella Valley, the change was approved by the Board of Supervisors for the area between the Highway 111 and Burr Street.

New eyeglasses for people with very poor vision have lenses similar to those used in lighthouses. They will magnify 300 times.

UPSET DEAR UPSET: Doesn't this "sweet but simple-minded 18-year old child" have parents? Tell her in words of one syllable that your husband is not a baby-sitter for 18-year-olds and be sure your husband understands that YOU are NOT kidding!

"Why don't my parents trust me? For What Every Teenager Wants To Know, send 25c and a large, stamped, self-addressed envelope to ABBY, care of this paper.

Scientists Warn Shark Menace To Increase

SAN FRANCISCO — (UPI) — Marine scientists warned today that the warming waters off California's beaches carry an ever-increasing menace of man-eating sharks.

Two men have been killed by the vicious fish in the last six weeks. Only two previous deaths by white sharks had been recorded—in 1952 and 1957.

But all authorities agreed that the great white sharks which struck 400 miles apart can no longer be considered isolated stragglers in these coastal waters.

One expressed fear that it might become necessary to protect swimmers with under-water shark nets, which have long been rigged off the shark-infested beaches of Australia.

Coastal waters, which for generations were too cold for the killer fish, have grown six degrees warmer in the last two years, scientists said.

Forest Service Officials Ask Aid of Public

The occurrence of five criminal set incendiary fires on the vital watershed lands of the San Bernardino National Forest and San Bernardino County constitute a threat to every citizen within the area, according to Forest Supervisor Donald R. Bauer and W. W. "Butch" Skinner, State Ranger in Charge of San Bernardino County.

Increased incendiary activity which resulted in five new fire outbreaks within the last week and a total of 11 to date in 1959 caused forestry officials to issue a plea to the public for assistance in obtaining information to apprehend the individuals responsible for these vicious acts.

BOTH SKINNER and Bauer stressed the importance of persons who see and report forest fires to follow through on their citizen responsibility by contacting the Forest Service or California Division of Forestry to assist the fire investigators by giving them any information they might have.

Details such as license numbers of vehicles in or near the fire area, numbers and descriptions of persons at the scene and a description of how the fire looked when first seen are of great value. Small details, no matter how insignificant, can often help solve these difficult cases.

THE CONGRESS of the United States and the San Bernardino County Board of Supervisors have considered this problem so vital that they have each posted rewards of not more than $500 or less than $100 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of any person on the charge of willfully and maliciously setting on fire, any timber, brush or grass within or near the National Forest.

"Our main hope of stamping out this needless threat to our existence is that some alert citizen will see, record and report the act of setting a fire so that the individual may be brought to justice," stated Bauer.

Ancient Sport

LONDON, England (UPI) — Fox hunting, often condemned as "savagery cloaked by the name of a sport," originated in England about 1320 during the reign of King Edward II.

LEGISLATURE TO ADJOURN

Assemblymen and Senators are winding up the January-to-June session of the State Legislature and preparing to leave Sacramento to return to their home districts.

Assemblyman L. M. Backstrand said it would take about a week after adjournment to take care of the work of closing his office and return to his home in Riverside.

THE LEGISLATURE, meeting in day and night sessions to handle the flood of last minute matters, will adjourn on Friday (June 19), bringing to a close the action-packed session that began on Jan. 5.

of the State Legislature been faced with so many measures of vital importance to the people of California," Assemblyman Backstrand said.

"Our State budget is bigger than ever. We have expressed our views on important appropriations and tax bills. We have taken steps to increase safety on the highways, to protect the economy of our people, to prepare for the continued spiral of growth that is inevitable in California.

"AND, AS NO OTHER Legislature has done, we have met head-on and coped with the complex issues of the water problem on which the continued development of California depends."

Backstrand said he intends to spell out the details of the Legis-

THIS IS OUR HOME TOWN ...AND WE LOVE IT!

Palm Springs is more than just a place to live. It is a state of mind—a way of life and to some of us who have found health and happiness here, it is Life itself. We love it and we want to share it so that others may experience all the joy and benefits we know.

If we were authors we would write books extolling its many virtues. If we were artists we would make paintings revealing its beauty—anything we could do to let all the world share these virtues and beauty. But, we are Builders...and as Builders we are serving our beloved Palm Springs in the one way we know best.

We have never believed, as some do, that Palm Springs is a three month out of the year resort. Every month in the year has its merits. To live here the year around most of us must have jobs. To provide as many jobs as we can, The George Alexander Construction Company plans its building programs on a twelve-month basis. This attracts permanent residents who are assured steady employment.

We are proud of these people for they are real solid citizens...

people who know how to do things, the kind of people who have made America great. Naturally we are also proud of our success in making our program work. There is no secret about how we do it—in fact we intend to tell exactly how we do it in a series of weekly ads which will appear in this paper.

We hope our story will inspire others—each in his own way—to contribute their part in making it possible for more and more people to enjoy the blessings Palm Springs has to offer Every Month In The Year.

Actually our formula is simple and can be applied to every type of business.

Give the people something better at a price and on terms they can afford.
